REPORT

OF THE

Comptroller of the Treasury

OF THE

STATE OF MARYLAND

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE,

ANNAPOLIS, December 24, 1909.

To the Honorable, the General Assembly of Maryland:

In obedience to the requirements of the provisions of Section 9 of Article 19 of the Code of Public General Laws, I beg to submit herewith my annual report for the fiscal year ended September 30, 1909.

RECEIPTS.

The gross receipts of the Treasury proper during the fiscal year were $5,400,104.69, an itemized statement of which is shown in Statement "A," to which must be added the balance on hand October 1, 1908, of $1,238,652.40, aggregating $6,638,757.09. The receipts proper, however, of $5,400,-104.69, while less in some respects, yet show an increase in the aggregate over the receipts of the year previous of $886,849.62, mainly from the following sources, viz: High Liquor Licenses from Baltimore City, $275,972.09; State Roads Loan, $540,-780.00; Collateral Inheritance Tax, $146,210.85, aggregating $962,962.94.

	High Liquor. Baltimore City.	State Roads Loan.	Collateral Inheritance Tax.
1909	$1,279,756.68	$640,830.00	$257,089.17
1908	1,003,784.59	100,050.00	110,878.32
Increase	$275,972.09	$540,780.00	$146,210.85

There must be eliminated, however, from the above statement the increase of $540,780, since this sum is represented by the proceeds of the sale of bonds for State roads and cannot be used by the State for current expenses, but is specifically dedicated for the construction of State roads.

The increase of $275,972.09 from High Liquor Licenses from Baltimore City is also worthy of explanation, inasmuch as three-fourths of this sum is returned to Baltimore City, leaving a net increase to the State of only $68,993.02. Chapter 196 of the Acts of the General Assembly of 1908, known as the High Liquor License Law of Baltimore City, has now been in operation two years, a sufficient time in which to judge of its efficiency as a revenue measure. By the provisions of said Act the cost of such licenses was raised from $250 to $500 for the year 1908, and to $750 for the year 1909, and I beg to submit herewith the following statement:

Year.	Receipts.	Paid to City.	Net to State.
1907	$ 597,951.77	$448,813.43	$149,138.34
1908	1,003,784.59	753,237.14	250,547.45
1909	1,279,756.68	960,192.26	319,564.42

The increase of $146,210.85 from the Tax on Collateral Inheritances is largely due to the increased tax from 2½ per centum to 5 per centum, Chapter 695 of 1908, and while this revenue must depend upon the value of estates descending collaterally, it necessarily increases this revenue 100 per centum over the old law.

Therefore, eliminating all the revenue received from dedicated funds, as well as the balance brought down from the preceding year, the following statement will show you the revenues of the State applicable to the ordinary running expenses thereof, viz:

Total receipts for the year		$5,400,104.69
Less direct tax from Collectors	$1,255,359.89
Less direct tax from Incorporated Institutions	107,592.59
Less direct tax from Baltimore City stock	42,982.25
Less State Roads Bonds, sold	640,830.00
Less High Liquor Licenses, Baltimore City	960,192.26
Less receipts of Oyster Fund	61,628.61
Less State Tobacco Inspections	4,279.49
		3,072,865.09
Total		$2,327,239.60

The ordinary receipts for the fiscal year in which we are now working should somewhat exceed those of last year, since the Tax on Gross Receipts of Corporations for the fiscal year just closed, owing to the financial depression through which we have passed, shows a shrinkage of $73,000. Business activities having been revived, those corporations should show larger receipts and consequently we may reasonably expect from this source a larger revenue for the year upon which we have entered.

DISBURSEMENTS.

In Statement "B" you will find the expenditures of the State, exclusive of the Fund's accounts, and the Acts of Assembly authorizing such payments, amounting to $5,310,687.43, or the largest sum ever disbursed by the State for a like period, exceeding that of last year by $671,203.52, and of the year previous by $1,170,824.41. While our ordinary receipts have shown a small but steady increase, yet the demands upon the Treasury have far exceeded such revenues. The balance in the Treasury proper September 30, 1909, was $1,328,069.66, or in excess of that of the year previous by $89,417.26, nevertheless the specific funds chargeable against said balance are the largest ever carried down, viz:

Balance in Treasury September 30, 1909		$1,328,069.66
Due Public Schools and Free Books	$591,652.19
Due State Roads Loan	469,465.45
Due Tobacco Warehouse Fund	170,792.18
Due Oyster Fund	4,795.38
Due Public Buildings Loan	4.272.93
Due State Loan of 1902	1,428.76
		$1,242,406.89
Balance applicable for ordinary expenses October 1, 1909		$ 85,662.77
Balance applicable for ordinary expenses October 1, 1908		330,520.93

Therefore the narrow margin applicable to meet the heavy demands at the beginning of the new fiscal year becomes apparent, and I therefore advise that the utmost retrenchment must be made in future appropriations.

SINKING FUNDS.

Your attention is respectfully invited to Statements "E" and "F," showing the investments made for the Sinking Funds during the year, a condensed statement of which is herewith submitted:

Sinking Funds.	Consolidated Loan of 1899.	State Roads Loan.	Total.
General	$ 4,000.00	$ 5,000.00	$ 9,000.00
Consolidated Loan, 1899	158,300.00	80,000.00	238,300.00
State Building and Improvement Loan	36,000.00	25,000.00	61,000.00
State Loan of 1902	40,000.00	20,000.00	60,000.00
Public Buildings Loan	.....	70,000.00	70,000.00
State Roads Loan	.....	100,000.00	100,000.00
Total	$238,300.00	$300,000.00	$538,300.00

This gratifying exhibit was made possible by bringing over a cash balance of $201,632.50 from the last fiscal year, the increment accruing to said funds from investments, together with a cash transfer from the Treasury proper of $189,914.87, all of which moneys have been invested in the State's own securities at par or less than par, so that at the close of the fiscal year the State held for its several Sinking Funds securities of the very highest value, amounting to $4,451,479.72, all of which will more fully appear in Statement "F."

OYSTER FUND.

The receipts and disbursements on account of this Fund are shown in Statement "H," showing a balance on hand at the close of the fiscal year of $4,795.38, the most gratifying exhibit of this fund for years by reason of largely increased revenues, sufficient indeed to meet all demands without an appropriation from the Treasury. The tax of one cent per bushel on all oysters inspected in this State, as enacted by Chapter 488 of the Acts of 1908, has been sufficient not only to pay the cost of such inspections, but also to carry to this fund the balance or excess of $22,010.95.

STATE DEBT.

The funded debt of the State will be found in Statement "J," aggregating $6,718,926.13, or in excess of that of the year previous by $640,000. This increase is represented by the amount of bonds sold during the year on account of the new State Roads Loan, Chapter 141 of the Acts of 1908. By the provisions of said Act the Board of Public Works were authorized to offer for sale said bonds, viz: On August 1, 1908, $500,000, and on February 1, 1909, $1,000,000, and in pursuance of said authority did offer for sale Series "A" and "B" of said bonds, but by virtue of the discretion therein conferred the purposes of said Act not demanding an immediate sale of the entire Series "A" and "B," the Board of Public Works have only issued $740,000 of said Loan, $760,000 yet remaining in the Treasury. On February 1, 1910, Series "C," $1,000,000 are to be offered for sale, and inasmuch as the work of the State Roads Commission has been thoroughly and efficiently inaugurated throughout the entire State, the demands upon this fund may require the sale of the balance of Series "A" and "B" and the entire issue of Series "C." If this expectation should be realized it will necessarily increase the gross debt of the State during the fiscal year by $1,760,000.

The net debt of the State at the close of the fiscal year, September 30, 1909, is shown to be $679,976.41, or an increase of $313,332.50, so that while the gross debt was increased during the year by $640,000, yet by reason of the investments for the Sinking Funds in the State's own securities, the increase in the net debt of the State was only $313,332.50.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Statement "L" shows the receipts and disbursements on account of the Public School Tax and Free Books, the total amount disbursed for these two funds being $1,371,333.26. Under the head of "Receipts" you will observe an item of $75,000, being receipts from the Treasury proper by an appropriation direct under Chapter 253 of the Acts of 1908, subtitle "Schools."

The State tax for public schools for the year 1906 was 15 cents on each $100, and for the years 1907 and 1908, 16 cents on each $100, being the entire State tax for the two years last mentioned. Inasmuch as it became necessary to levy a tax sufficient to provide for the interest and create a sinking fund for the State Roads Loan, and the Legislature deeming it unwise to increase the State tax rate, but at the same time to provide against any diminution of the school fund, fixed the tax rate for the year 1909 at 14½ cents for Public Schools and at 1½ cents for State Roads Loan, and for the year 1910 at 12½ cents for Public Schools and at 3½ cents for State Roads Loan, aggregating for each year 16 cents. Therefore to recoup this loss of revenue to the schools of 1½ cents and 3½ cents, the Legislature of 1908 made a direct appropriation from the Treasury proper of $75,000 for the year 1909 and $206,250 for the year 1910 under Chapter 254, subtitle "Schools."

But, by such action, the Legislature made a heavy drain upon the ordinary receipts of the Treasury, especially when there is considered the further payments of $37,000 to Approved High Schools, $46,500 to Manual Training and Industrial Schools and $27,500 to Academies and Seminaries, so that there has been paid during the past fiscal year for the purposes above mentioned the sum of $186,000 without any tax to meet the same, while like demands for the fiscal year 1910 will exceed $320,000. If it therefore be your purpose to continue this amount of revenue to the purposes mentioned, you must levy a tax to meet the same.

During the month of October, 1909, there was paid, in accordance with law, the sum of $86,500, to Approved High Schools $40,000 and to Manual Training and Industrial Schools $46,500. This amount falling due at the very beginning of the fiscal year, at which time the heaviest demands are made upon the Treasury, becomes burdensome and, in my judgment, should be made in quarterly instalments, and I therefore respectfully recommend that an amendment be made to the statute covering this feature. Indeed, I would recommend that all appropriations to public or private institutions likewise carry this provision. Many officials of our institutions are of the opinion that because their appropriations for the fiscal year become available on the first day of October, therefore the whole amount should be paid on that date, unmindful of the fact that all appropriations from ordinary receipts are made subject to the condition of the Treasury at any time during that year.

DEPENDENT INSANE.

Chapter 435 of the Acts of 1908 requires that from and after the first day of January, 1911, the State shall be charged with the maintenance and care of the Dependent Insane, as follows:

"From and after the first day of January, 1911, the State of Maryland shall be charged with the maintenance, care, control and treatment of all dependent insane persons who are at that time residents of the State of Maryland, and as soon as practicable after the said first day of January, 1911, the State Board of Lunacy shall transfer from the several county's almshouses and county and city asylums to one of the State Hospitals for the Insane such dependent insane persons who are residents of the State of Maryland as in the judgment of the said Board of Lunacy should be so removed; and all such dependent insane persons after their removal to one of the State Hospitals for the Insane shall be maintained therein at the expense of the State. * * *"

This measure has my entire endorsement. You will observe that said Act makes no appropriation whatever to carry into effect its provisions. Indeed, if the provision were so made, the receipts of the Treasury would not warrant such a large expenditure. Therefore to make said Act effective, in my judgment, three propositions present themselves, viz: The ordinary revenues must be increased, or the demands now upon the Treasury must be very materially reduced, or there must be a direct tax levied specifially for this purpose.

REASSESSMENT OF PROPERTY.

The assessable basis of the State for the year 1909 was $820,831,339. The last general assessment throughout the State was made in 1896, or thirteen years ago, and by taking the basis as made that year, operative of course for the year 1897, we can readily gather the increase in basis, and I herewith submit the following statement:

Year.	Total Basis.	Baltimore City.	Counties.
1909	$820,831,339	$480,278,356	$340,552,983
1897	607,965,272	336,219,168	271,746,104
Increase	$212,866,067	$144,059,188	$ 68,806,879
Gain—per cent	.350	.428	.253

While the above statement shows a very large increase both in the City of Baltimore and in the several counties, yet I am led to believe that a new assessment would show a largely increased basis as well as a more equitable adjustment of this basis.

TRADERS' LICENSES.

Chapter 414 of the Acts of 1858 adopted the following schedule for Traders' Licenses, to wit:

Licenses.	Capital.	License Fee, 12 Months.
Traders—female	$ 500	$ 6.00
Traders	1,000	12.00
"	1,500	15.00
"	2,500	18.00
"	4,000	22.00
"	6,000	30.00
"	8,000	40.00
"	10,000	50.00
"	15,000	65.00
"	20,000	80.00
"	30,000	100.00
"	40,000	125.00
" exceeding	40,000	150.00

This schedule was fixed 51 years ago and has remained the same from that time to the present. In my judgment, a different rating should now be made. At the time this schedule was established it doubtless represented a fair and equitable adjustment of values since there were few traders in the State at that time whose stock in trade generally kept on hand exceeded $40,000. But times have changed. We now see large accumulations of money unthought of 51 years ago. The trader with a capital of $40,000 pays into the Treasury $125, while the trader with a capital of a million dollars or more pays into the Treasury $150, or only $25 more than his neighbor of $40,000. This is a discrimination against the trader of smaller capital that ought not to exist. I would therefore recommend for your favorable consideration an amendment to Article 56 of the Code of Public General Laws, providing for a graduated scale, beginning where the existing one now ends—exceeding $40,000 and running to and exceeding $500,000.

TREASURY AUDIT.

For several years past the books and accounts of this Office, as well as those of the Treasurer's Office, have been thoroughly examined each year by expert accountants whose character and experience in their profession is the best guarantee of the value of such examination, among whom may be mentioned Col. John A. Tompkins, Frank Blacklock, the American Audit Company of New York, and others. These examinations for the fiscal years ending September 30, 1908, and 1909, were made by the American Audit Company of New York, checking every item of receipts and disbursements through day books and ledgers in each office and verifying the same with the cash in the several State depositories, together with an actual count of the State securities. It is a matter of pride for me to state that each examination showed the books neatly and accurately kept, balancing with the cash to the cent, while the large amount of securities were found absolutely intact.

CONCLUSION.

I have endeavored to give you as concisely as possible the general condition of the Treasury, but I beg to remind you that our expenditures have increased greater proportionately than our income. Indeed, we have reached that position where such expenditures must be curtailed. It is not possible to maintain the present appropriations with the revenues now received and I therefore urge that all future appropriations be made with the wisest discrimination with due regard to the resources of the State.

I wish to express my appreciation of the valuable services which Mr. Harry J. Hopkins, my Chief Clerk, has rendered. His entire familiarity with the details of the office and his comprehension of the broad scope of the work make his services of the highest importance, both to the Comptroller and to those who have business with this office.

I extend thanks to all the clerks in my office for their faithfulness and efficiency, and to the Hon. Murray Vandiver, State Treasurer, for his many acts of courtesy in our official relations.

Respectfully submitted,

J. W. HERING,

Comptroller.
